

ECLIPSE & WILDLIFE WONDERS WEEKEND

August 18-22, 2017, Dennison Lodge, Dubois, WY

*to benefit the National Bighorn Sheep Center

Sign up for the entire package OR individual programs & meals

Join the National Bighorn Sheep Center for the full August 18-22 solar eclipse weekend! Highlights include educational events, hikes and tours of the unique local wildlife, geology and cultural history of the Upper Wind River Valley and guaranteed seating for home-cooked, catered breakfasts, lunches and dinners for the entire four-day weekend. Indoor programs will be offered and meals served in a historic log cabin called the Dennison Lodge, and solar eclipse viewing glasses, free admission and an annual membership to the National Bighorn Sheep Center is included for those who register for the entire package.

Reservations are limited on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Call 307-455-3429 or email sara@bighorn.org to register.

PRICES: $475/person includes ALL meals & programs, $90 for all programs (no meals), $10 per program, $13/breakfast, $13/lunch, $30/dinner (all homecooked!)

Friday, August 18th:

5:30pm-6:30pm: Dinner-Primavera shrimp fettuccine, broccoli, garden salad & cheesy bread sticks

7:30pm-8:30pm: Program "Wildlife Taxidermy" by local Taxidermist Lynn Stewart

Saturday, August 19th:

7:30am-8:30am: Breakfast (pick up packed lunch to-go)

8am-3pm: Tour Torrey Valley Petroglyphs with Dubois Museum (space is limited, must sign up in advance DIRECTLY with Dubois Museum at 307-455-2284) or personal exploration time

2pm-3pm: Program "WY Eclipse & Wind River Valley History" with local Historian Steve Banks

5:30pm-6:30pm: Dinner-Fried chicken, potato salad, coleslaw, vegetable & cornbread

7:30pm-8:30pm: Film showing "The Mystery of Chaco Canyon" Produced by the Solstice Project

Sunday, August 20th:

7:30am-8:30am: Breakfast (pick up packed lunch to-go)

9am-2pm: Trek Bighorn Sheep Trap or Scenic Wildlife Discovery Hike with local Naturalist Bruce Thompson (space is limited, must sign up in advance) or personal exploration time

2pm-3pm: Program "Ancient Art of Spear-Point Knapping" by local Artist Tom Lucas

5:30pm-6:30pm: Dinner-Lasagna, eggplant parmesan, mixed vegetables, garden salad & rolls

7:30pm-8:30pm: Program "Everything You Ever Wanted to Know about the Solar Eclipse & Were Afraid to Ask" by local Tom Herret, M.S.

Monday, August 21st:

7:30am-8:30am: Breakfast (pick up packed lunch to-go)

9:30am-2:30pm: Eclipse viewing, participants given options & guidance to viewing locations

3pm-4pm: Program "Bighorn Biology & Ecology: From Bite to Butt & Beyond" by Center staff

5:30pm-6:30pm: Dinner-Prime rib, garlic mashed potatoes, roasted vegetables, garden salad & rolls

7:30pm-8:30pm: Program "Wilderness Survival" by local Mountain Man & Historian Joe Brandl

Tuesday, August 22nd:

7:30am-8:30am: Breakfast (pick up packed lunch to-go)

EXCLUSIVE OFFER: DUBOIS, WYOMING, SOLAR ECLIPSE WILDLIFE WONDERS WEEKEND

Clear sky over petroglyphs, Scott Copeland photograph

Bighorn ram, Jeff Vanuga photograph

Eclipse & Wildlife Wonders Weekend in Dubois, WY –Want a prime viewing location to watch this summer’s solar eclipse and shadows racing across the mountains of Wyoming? Dubois is the place!

This offer is open and available to all who want to join us in the “best in the west, cowboy town of Dubois”, population 1,000, with lots more motel rooms and tent sites than restaurant seating and only one small grocery store in 75 miles. On many summer days, without thousands of extra eclipse visitors, there can be LONG WAITING LINES at Dubois restaurants. Motel rooms are nearly completely booked, with more requests daily, even from Yellowstone National Park outside the path of totality!

Program seating and meals are guaranteed ONLY with reservation. You may register for the entire 4-day package (meals & programs) OR sign up for individual programs and meals. For the complete description of the meals and programs being offered, see the reverse or visit this link. This is the event for you if you:

- Like home-cooked prime rib, fried chicken and shrimp fettuccine served in the rustic 1914 Dennison Lodge’s private dining room where Clark Gable stayed with Carole Lombard;
- Want to learn about historic bighorn sheep traps and visit centuries-old petroglyphs;
- Like hiking with local guides who know where wildlife might be and will share secrets of the Wind River Valley;
- Want to learn a how to make a spear point through a knapping demonstration, and;
- DON’T like waiting in lines or missing meals!

Programs will be offered both in the Dennison Lodge and out on the trails, and the total package includes free admission to our wildlife museum, which displays bighorns, wolves, grizzlies and more!

Your dollars will greatly help our Whiskey Mountain bighorn sheep herd. Call the National Bighorn Sheep Center at 307-455-3429 or email sara@bighorn.org for more information and to register.

