

Camp Bighorn 2023

What to Bring List

Clothing and Footwear:

- Summer hat with visor or wide brim for sun protection
- Lightweight waterproof jacket
- Lightweight fleece or hoodies for layering
- Gloves and stocking hat for cool mornings and evenings
- Rain pants and jacket or durable poncho that covers to the knees
- Long sleeve shirts for sun protection
- Lighter clothing that can be layered
- Sturdy walking shoes or hiking boots
- Extra shoes to wear around camp
- Water shoes or sandals with durable straps for classes such as water ecology and kayaking

Outdoor Items:

- Daypack-a comfortable pack, campers will be carrying it around most of the day. Straps should be wide and not the draw-string type
- Journal or notebook
- Sunglasses
- Sunscreen (30 SPF or higher) lip balm with sunscreen
- Insect repellent (A necessary, but frequently forgotten item)
- Refillable water bottle (Conservation Camp has a bottle filler)
- Life jacket fitted to the camper for kayaking activity (If you don't have one, let NBSC know, so we can have one available)
- Bear spray (Optional for youth campers, can be purchased as Dubois Superfoods)
- Camera (Optional)
- Binoculars (Optional)
- Large bandana that can be wetted for cooling (Optional)
- Walking stick (Optional)
- Spot or Garmin In-Reach (Optional, if you have one)

Overnight Items:

- Bedding or sleeping bag (Bed linens are NOT provided)
- Pillow
- Toiletries
- Hand Sanitizer
- Prescription and over-the-counter medications (Will be stored with the Camp Nurse)
- Towels and washcloths (These items are frequently forgotten)
- Snacks (Optional)
- Water-soluble electrolytes (Options)
- Fishing gear (Optional, don't forget a Wyoming Fishing License)